INTEGRITY

"Integrity is not the certainty that we are right; it is the discipline of continually refining our understanding until it aligns as closely as possible with reality."